

Birla Institute of Technology & Science, Pilani
K K Birla Goa Campus
Council for Student Affairs

After the review by special body and having more than two third majority along with the CSA, the following amendments have been submitted for approval:

- The part 2, Explanation 2, Article 10f of the constitution for President, Vice President and Treasurer be amended to "The elected candidate should be in his/her the 3rd year for single degree students and 3rd or 4th year for Dual degree students during their tenure. For the General Secretary be amended to "The elected candidate should be in his/her 2nd year for single or dual degree during their tenure."
- The CGPA cut-off of candidates eligible for the post of CSA be amended to 5.50 for all posts of CSA (President, Vice-President, Treasurer and General Secretary) from the current 6.00 as mentioned in the constitution. This was proposed by the special body.
- In the clause 7(a), the word 'secret ballot' should be removed from the clause regarding the procedure of conducting elections.
- The clause 7(b) be amended to "Applications shall be invited by the Election Commission from eligible candidates".
- The special Body also recommends the addition of a clause that the applications for amendments to the election related issues should be entertained till a month before the proposed/tentative election date (for that contact the C.E.C. or D.E.C.). The application for amendments will be entertained in that month only if the director sir agrees to it.
